

Classes between the Masses

INTRODUCING . . .

Adult Faith Formation opportunities will be available between the Sunday morning Masses. These classes will cover a variety of topics and all are welcome to attend. Join us in the St. John Room beginning at 9:45am on scheduled Sundays.

SEPT 10 | “What is Marriage?”

Join Fr. Weldon as he explains the basics of the Sacrament of Marriage beginning at 10am.

SEPT 17 | Baptism Class

This Baptism class is available on the third Sunday of every month for new parents and godparents.

SEPT 24 | Video Presentation

OCT 1 | “Part 1: How to Read the Book of Creation: Liturgy, Culture, and the Future of Catholicism”

[with Dusty Gates, M.A.]

The liturgy is the central work of the Church, which offers sacrifice on behalf of all of creation for the sanctification of the world. Such importance mandates careful attention. This class will focus on the sacred liturgy through the lenses of theology & history, seeking to answer questions about what the liturgy is, what the liturgy does, & how we are invited to participate. The class will feature reflections from St. Maximus the Confessor, Romano Guardini, Pope Benedict XVI, & Pope Francis. Finally, the class will include some projections about what is in store for the Church in the 21st century & beyond.

OCT 8 | “Part 2: How to Read the Book of Creation: Liturgy, Culture, and the Future of Catholicism”

OCT 22 | Video Presentation

NOV 5 | “Freedom vs. License”

[with Joe Langenfeld]

This class will explain how failure to have a clear understanding of freedom leads to its eventual loss.

NOV 12 | “Civil Disobedience”

[with Joe Langenfeld]

Part Two of this class will outline the “do’s and don’t’s” of Catholic Social Teaching.

NOV 26 | Video Presentation

DEC 3 | “Christ, Councils, and Creed”

[with Ryan Schwarz]

This class will provide a brief survey of Christological heresies in the 4th and 5th centuries and the councils that proclaimed dogma.

DEC 10 | “December 25th: Roman Sun God Holiday or Actual Birthday of Jesus Christ?”

[with Ryan Schwarz]

Many argue the Church co-opted the pagan Sun God Sol Invictus holiday of Dec. 25 to celebrate the birth of Christ. This class will explore if this is the case or if Christ’s birthday is really the 25th of December.
